

SUMMER READING BINGO 2020

Earn a raffle ticket and a merit for each book you read over the summer! When you have done as many challenges as you want to, complete this form: HTTPS://BIT.LY/200XVRV. Prizes will be awarded when school starts again! There are links to some booklists here to give you ideas, but feel free to find other books to fit a particular category.

Share your successes on social media using the hashtag #WHSSummerReadingBingo2020

1. Finding lockdown challenging? Read a book about a character who is isolated from others. Ideas are here: <https://bit.ly/37d7Hes>

2. Hot off the presses! Read a book from this 2020-2021 Year 7 and 8 recommended reads list: <https://bit.ly/2Zsczsm>

3. Picture perfect! Select a favourite picture book or graphic novel/comic book, and read it to a younger sibling or to family/friends via video call. Extra merit if you take a photo!

4. Lovely listening: Select an audiobook to listen to. These links have free audiobooks:

5. Explore a variety of perspectives by reading a book written by someone from a black, Asian or minority ethnic background (BAME). Here are some fabulous choices: <https://bit.ly/2ZvGtfy>

6. Be hopeful by reading at least 5 stories/extracts from The Book of Hopes, available for free here: <https://literacytrust.org.uk/family-zone/9-12/book-hopes/>

7. Experiment with the present or future! Read a science fiction book or book with science links. Here is a list with ideas for you: <https://bit.ly/3eSPV39>

8. Read an ebook or listen to an eAudiobook from a public library. If you aren't a member, you can join remotely; the Oxfordshire library link is here: <https://www.oxfordshire.gov.uk/residents/leisure-and-culture/libraries/using-library/join-library>

9. Cuddly or ferocious? Read a book with an animal as a character. Try one of these books or find one yourself. <https://bit.ly/38iREw9>
