Section A: Introduction

Article 19 of UNICEF convention of the rights of the child states all children should have the right to protection from all forms of violence: ‘Children have the right to be protected from being hurt and mistreated, physically or mentally.’

The Equality Act 2010 introduced a public sector equality duty. All schools must have due regard to the need to: ‘eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited under the Act.’

Bullying is any deliberate, repeated behaviour that physically or emotionally hurts someone.

Westhoughton High School is committed to ensuring that all stakeholders are aware of what bullying is, why it is wrong, what their responsibilities are to prevent bullying, how the school responds to bullying and how it monitors the impact of its policy.

Westhoughton High School recognises that bullying is a serious issue that can have substantial impacts on the well-being of victims therefore the school has a zero-tolerance approach to bullying of all kinds. We believe that it is the right of every pupil and every staff member to work in a positive and safe environment and that it is the responsibility of everyone in the school community to ensure that this happens. The aim of this policy is to promote the effective prevention of bullying and a consistent approach to dealing with bullying incidents when they occur.

This will allow for the Safeguarding Committee to work closely with the school where further targeted anti-bullying work needs to be addressed.

Strategies to Prevent Bullying

Westhoughton High School promotes a positive ethos to prevent acts of bullying between pupils and strives to create a positive and supportive environment for the whole school community. Specifically, the following measures will be taken:

- Anti-Bullying Week – this will be a high profile event on the school calendar to raise awareness of bullying and everyone's responsibility in preventing and responding to it (signing our Westhoughton together against bullying pledge).
- Together Against Bullying Anti-Bullying Ambassadors recruited annually. They will participate in a training conference and will deliver key messages to their cohorts via assemblies and through LEARN form activities and circle time.
- Assembly programme – Bullying will regularly feature on the assembly programme delivered by a range of staff focusing on key aspects such as being an 'Upstander' and cyber-bullying.
- RE/PSHCEE with a focus on Anti-Bullying in years 7-11 in order to underpin anti-bullying work.
- Counselling and self-esteem work, will be completed with pupils who have been the victims of or perpetrators of bullying delivered through the school's Behaviour Unit.
- Peer mentoring scheme – (Together Against Bullying Group) pupils trained to act as peer mentors to pupils identified as vulnerable to the social challenges of a large high school.
- Promotion of reporting bullying concerns – pupils will be encouraged to report bullying to members of staff. Pupils will have a range of methods of reporting open to them.
- Encouraging students to report incidents of bullying out of school, on the way to school as well as in school.
- Informing parents and carers about potential risks.
 - Parents/carers can help by making sure their child understands the school's policy and, above all, how seriously the school takes incidents of cyber-bullying. Parents/carers should also explain to their children legal issues relating to cyber-bullying. If parents/carers believe their child is the victim of cyber-bullying, they should save the offending material. Parents/carers should contact the school as soon as possible.

Strategies to respond to bullying

There are a variety of ways of reporting bullying incidents, and these methods will be clearly communicated to all stakeholders. (see appendices 1,2 and 3) When bullying does occur our priority will be to deal with each incident sensitively and efficiently to try to minimise the negative impact it may have on members of the school community. Staff will always consider sensitively the needs of the victim, especially how they wish the matter to be resolved. All reported incidents of bullying are recorded using the Bullying Incident Record and an action plan to deal with the issue will be created. Each action plan will be unique to the individual incident however it could include the following:

- Peer mentoring – pupils (Together Against Bullying Group) will be specifically trained to mentor victims of bullying to provide an extra layer of support.
- Counselling and self-esteem work for victims of bullying – where appropriate a range of internal and external services will be offered to those affected by bullying.
- Intervention work and, where necessary, school discipline sanctions for pupils who have been involved in bullying behaviour.
- Restorative action, where appropriate, for pupils involved in bullying incidents.

F) Monitoring Procedures

- Bullying incidents will be logged and managed by the child's SSL/SPL
- The details of those involved and the incidents will be recorded in Arbor and the Bullying Incident Record and pupil action plan. The follow up record sheet will be completed.
- All documents relating to bullying incidents are stored within a designated bullying file held by each pastoral year team.
- Bullying incidents will be reported to Assistant Headteacher (KS3/KS4) as part of pastoral line management monitoring.
- Regular reports focusing on bullying incidents will be made to the safeguarding governors committee.
- The anti-bullying policy will be regularly reviewed and updated to address need.

Section C Additional Information and Guidance

Signs and Symptoms of bullying

Victims of bullying may show a range of different characteristics and behaviours however, the most important sign that something may be wrong is a change in usual behaviour for a pupil. Such behaviour can include:

- Being unusually quiet and reluctant to join in
- Being teary
- Angry outbursts
- Anxiousness or expressing worries
- Absence from school
- Tiredness
- Obvious bruising/marks

- Ripped clothing
- Missing equipment/belongings without explanation
- Unhappy to travel to and from school

All concerns about a child should be taken seriously and should be reported in line with school safeguarding procedures.

Further information on current issues

Homophobic Bullying and Cyberbullying both fall under the overall definition of bullying and therefore will be dealt with according to the policy and procedures outlined above. However, we feel that it is important to add further clarification about these two categories of bullying which are currently emerging as significant issues in wider society.

Homophobic Bullying

Homophobic bullying occurs when bullying is motivated by a prejudice against lesbian, gay or bisexual, transgender, questioning or intersex (LGBTQI) people.

A range of people in school may experience homophobic bullying:

- Young people who are LGBTQI
- Young people who are thought to be LGBTQI
- Young people who are different in some way – they may not act like the other boys or girls.
- Young people who have gay friends, or family, or their parents/carers are gay.
- Teachers, who may or may not be LGBTQI

Homophobic bullying, as with all forms of bullying, can occur in different ways. Incidents of homophobic bullying will be dealt with in line with the actions outlined in Section B

In addition, staff and pupils will actively challenge casual homophobic language and will ensure that repeated incidences which therefore fall under the definition of bullying are dealt with in line with the policy actions.

The occurrence of homophobic bullying will be explicitly recorded and monitored by pastoral staff. This information will be regularly shared with staff and governors and if a specific need for further action is identified this will form part of ongoing anti-bullying work.

Tolerance and respect for difference are part of our Westhoughton ID and will repeatedly be key themes in the taught curriculum and at appropriate points awareness raising activities such as assemblies and workshops will be held to improve the understanding of the school community about LGBTQI issues.

Cyberbullying

Cyberbullying is also addressed within the school Online safety policy.

Cyberbullying includes the use of phones and computers/electronic devices to harass, threaten or intimidate someone. It can include the use of instant messaging, e-mail, chat rooms, social networking sites, sharing images/videos, trolling, excluding children from activities/friendship groups, setting up hate sites, silent or abusive phone calls, vilification/defamation and impersonation.

Cyberbullying:

- can take place at any time and intrude into spaces that have previously been regarded as safe and personal;
- can provide the potential for anonymity on the part of the bully. This can be extremely distressing for the victim;
- can provide the potential for the bully to play very rapidly to a larger audience;
- can provide the difficulty in controlling electronically circulated messages as more people get drawn in as accessories. By passing on an image or message, a bystander becomes an accessory to the bullying.

Cyberbullying may also involve 'sexting'. In such cases staff will follow the most up to date guidance and if necessary will seek further advice from the police or other external agencies.

Children and parents are advised not to reply to abusive messages but to save and report them. Please do not delete anything (even if it is upsetting) as the material may be important evidence.

Civil and Criminal Law

It can be considered a criminal offence under several different acts including, Protection from Harassment Act (1997) and the Malicious Communications Act (1988).

School will ensure that all staff and pupils receive regular training on the safe and appropriate use of the internet. The issue of cyberbullying will appear in the taught curriculum (ICT/PSHE) and through assemblies and workshops at appropriate points.

The occurrence of cyber bullying will be explicitly recorded and monitored by pastoral staff. This information will be regularly shared with staff and governors and if a specific need for further action is identified this will form part of ongoing anti-bullying work.

Incidents of cyber-bullying will be dealt with on a case by case basis in line with the school behaviour policy. Where appropriate, advice may be sought from the police or other external agencies and if a potential criminal offence has been committed school staff may advise the parents of the pupil to refer the matter to a police investigation.

What should you do if you are being bullied?

What should you do if you are being bullied?

Tell someone. The bully's biggest friend is silence. You need to find someone that you trust—a friend, a teacher, a relative and let them know what is happening. Bullies will rely on you keeping quiet they don't like to be challenged.

Don't worry. Our main priority is to stop the bullying. We will work with you to develop a plan of practical things that we can do to help. We will find a way to make things better.

Any Questions?.....

I am worried about talking to someone, wont it just make the problem worse?

This is the main fear of bullying victims. Most of the time telling someone about a bully helps to sort out the problem straight away. If the situation has not got better, or even become worse you must not give up. Go back and explain to the person helping you. The school can now use a range of serious actions to protect and support you.

My friends are picking on someone- what should I do?
Eventually you may well be labelled a bully yourself. No-one finds standing up to their friends easy but you need to either persuade them that their behaviour is wrong OR distance yourself from their actions. Try talking to some of the group individually and see if they agree with you that things have gone too far. You might find other people feel the same way but thought they were on their own.

I know that someone is being bullied should I get involved?

If you see another pupil suffering or looking threatened and you ignore the situation then you are allowing bullying to win and you are making sure someone's suffering continues. If you are confident enough stop the situation and point out how wrong the behaviour is. Perhaps you could take the victim to a teacher and explain what you saw. If you are nervous about stepping in you can simply report what you saw. This can be done directly to a teacher or can be done anonymously via the school website, or using the QR code in your planner
